With its new Evidence collection of table glassware for bistros, brasseries, bars and even caterers, Chef&Sommelier unveils a perfectly balanced design. With its short leg and angular goblet, enhanced by the brilliance and finesse of Krysta, the Evidence collection is the ideal mix of practicality and quality. The four capacities of the glasses of this collection allow the professionals of the restoration to ensure effectively and elegantly the service of wines, champagnes and prosecco or beers (in particular with the 45cl). This new range is obviously the new asset for bars and restaurants with a relaxed atmosphere.
